

661—404.6(97A) Recurrences. If a member is incapacitated as a result of a previous work-related injury for which temporary incapacity had been granted and from which the member has been released, then the member must file a new application to be eligible for temporary incapacity status.